

If the international community fails to speak out, the prospects for religious pluralism and tolerance in the region are bleak. President Ronald Reagan once said that the U.S. Constitution is a "covenant that we have made not only with ourselves, but with all of mankind."

I believe that the United States has an obligation to speak out for the voiceless around the world, and I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting my legislation calling for a special envoy dedicated to speaking out for religious minorities in the Near East and South and Central Asia and elevating this issue as a foreign policy priority for America.

HONORING JOSEPH DANIEL MOSS

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 25, 2011

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I proudly pause to recognize Joseph Daniel Moss. Joseph is a very special young man who has exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 260, and earning the most prestigious award of Eagle Scout.

Joseph has been very active with his troop, participating in many Scout activities. Over the many years Joseph has been involved with Scouting, he has not only earned numerous merit badges, but also the respect of his family, peers, and community. Most notably, Joseph has contributed to his community through his Eagle Scout project.

Mr. Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in commending Joseph Daniel Moss for his accomplishments with the Boy Scouts of America and for his efforts put forth in achieving the highest distinction of Eagle Scout.

CONGRATULATING MS. JUANITA BRADLEY

HON. MICHAEL R. TURNER

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 25, 2011

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to recognize a member of the General Daniel "Chappie" James American Legion Auxiliary Post 776, located in my congressional district in Riverside, Ohio, for the service she has given to her community.

On November 6, 2010, Ms. Juanita Bradley was honored as the "Woman of the Year" in Dayton, Ohio, for her lifetime of work and dedication to assist needy families in Dayton and the surrounding communities.

Ms. Bradley is the founder and chairman of the American Legion Post 776 "Needy Family Committee" which has provided holiday food baskets to needy families in Dayton for over 25 years. Under Ms. Bradley's guidance and leadership, the number of families receiving food baskets has grown from 12 to 60 families. These baskets, which are delivered on the third Saturday in December, are the size of a large laundry basket, and are filled with a variety of perishable and non-perishable items.

Ms. Bradley and her committee also serve hot meals to a homeless residence at the St.

Vincent Hotel on a monthly basis. Most of the meals served are cooked by Ms. Bradley herself.

Ms. Bradley is also the Chair of "Make a Difference Day," which for two years has "adopted" the children of service men and women who have been deployed overseas. The event offers an alternative to trick-or-treating by hosting a Halloween party where kids can enjoy pizza, sodas, and other treats in a safe and fun environment. Last year, the event also provided the children with phone cards that could be used to call their parents during the holidays.

The American Legion Auxiliary is the world's largest, nonprofit patriotic women's service organization whose members do volunteer work for a multitude of worthwhile causes that benefit America's veterans, children and communities. It is my pleasure to congratulate Ms. Juanita Bradley for her receipt of the "Woman of the Year" award in Dayton, Ohio.

IN RECOGNITION OF MS. PAULA BUONOMO'S 14 YEARS OF DEDICATED SERVICE TO THE MASSACHUSETTS THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

HON. JAMES P. MCGOVERN

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 25, 2011

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of a true friend and valued public servant, Ms. Paula Buonomo, for her years of dedicated service to the constituents of the Massachusetts Third Congressional District. After 14 years as District Representative in my Worcester Congressional Office, Paula is retiring to spend more time with her family and especially her beautiful baby granddaughter, Abigail.

Paula joined my Worcester office early in my first term in 1997. Since that time she has exhibited consistent excellence and shown a thoughtful and compassionate hand in all of her work. She has been tireless in her approach with constituents, always welcoming and personable, a model of patient kindness. Most of all, Paula has been a delight to work with these many years, and I know that I speak not only for myself, but for my entire staff when I say that we will all miss her dearly.

It is bittersweet to say goodbye to a beloved and loyal colleague, but I know that Paula will remain involved in many other important efforts, including her work at the Worcester County Food Bank, where she serves on the board, and her church, St. Matthew's Parish of Worcester. Whatever projects or ventures she takes on, I am confident that Paula will continue to make a positive difference in her community.

Mr. Speaker, I am sure that the United States House of Representatives joins me in recognizing Ms. Paula Buonomo for her many years of dedicated public service to the constituents of the Massachusetts Third Congressional District, and for the indispensable role she has played as one of my most trusted and valued staff members. I wish her only the best in all of her future endeavors.

HONORING RYAN JACOB ROBERTS

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 25, 2011

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I proudly pause to recognize Ryan Jacob Roberts. Ryan is a very special young man who has exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 1180, and earning the most prestigious award of Eagle Scout.

Ryan has been very active with his troop, participating in many Scout activities. Over the many years Ryan has been involved with Scouting, he has not only earned numerous merit badges, but also the respect of his family, peers, and community. Most notably, Ryan has contributed to his community through his Eagle Scout project. Ryan designed and constructed a picnic area in the Kansas City, Missouri Police Department's Trail of Heroes park, as a place of significant importance to Ryan as both his father and brother are Kansas City Police officers.

Mr. Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in commending Ryan Jacob Roberts for his accomplishments with the Boy Scouts of America and for his efforts put forth in achieving the highest distinction of Eagle Scout.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ADAM SMITH

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 25, 2011

Mr. SMITH of Washington. Mr. Speaker, yesterday evening, Monday, January 24, 2011, I was unable to be present for recorded votes. SPECIAL INSPECTOR GENERAL FOR AFGHANISTAN RECONSTRUCTION, MAJOR GENERAL ARNOLD FIELDS' WARNING

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 25, 2011

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, the outgoing Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction, Major General Arnold Fields, issued a last warning yesterday before moving on from his post.

Fields warned that over $11 billion of U.S. aid is at risk, citing insufficient planning and a lack of oversight. The $11 billion are funds designated to build facilities to house and train Afghan security forces.

The lack of security in Afghanistan also poses a problem, placing any potentially beneficial projects that are completed at risk. Even if all the facilities scheduled to be built are completed, does Afghanistan have the capability to protect and maintain them?
